

July 2021
Primetimers' Gazette

Greetings
From your President

Elections were held at the July 5th meeting. Barb Steinhilber remains secretary as she ran unopposed for that position. Jim Aschenbrenner stepped up and ran unopposed for vice president while Barb Kugel and Sue Aschenbrenner are our two new board members. Thank you to Jim, Barb S, Sue and Barb K.

Because the Primetimer garage is owned by the town of St. Germain when state inspectors were looking at town property they naturally checked out "our" garage. It seems we have a few minor violations that need correcting. Most can be accomplished with a good re-organization. Thanks to all the members who signed up to help work on the garage to bring it up to state code. It is very much appreciated.

The van was not used much the past year. Thanks to Covid our activities were greatly curtailed. But now that we are again able to go places we are looking for someone to oversee the van maintenance. Not a difficult job, one that even us ladies can manage! (Ladies, you won't have to change the oil or change a tire but keep records for the club)

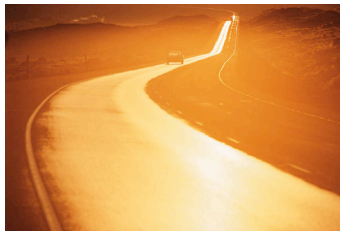

Barb Steinhilber is in the process of putting together a VOLUNTEER dinner in September. Wonder if you're eligible? See above opportunities! Come to a meeting to see all the other sign up sheets with volunteer opportunities!

Our next meeting will be the picnic on Wednesday, August 4th at noon at the large shelter. Bring a salad or dessert to share if you can (include a serving utensil please). The club provides hot dogs or sloppy Joes, brats and drinks (non alcoholic!). Be sure to bring your own plate, silverware and glass.

Audrey Lehner, President

What you missed at the July meeting... ELECTIONS!!!! But that's not all Bill Vancos from the Rhinelander Historical Society knows more about the WHOLE area, not just Rhinelander. I'd bet 99% Of residents probably had no idea that St Germain was originally in Lincoln county!

Take me out to the ball game

On Wednesday July 21st at 8am the van will be leaving for a day of fun at a Timber Rattlers baseball game. It will stop at a McDonalds (in Wittenberg?) along the way for a quick bite to eat. Time permitting we also stop at Nueskes Meats in Wittenberg before heading on to the big game. (You might consider bringing a small cooler with ice for any Nueskes purchases.) Returning home we will stop at Chet And Emil's for dinner. $23-29 covers the van fee and entrance to the ball park.

Picnic

Our August member meeting will be the Annual Picnic. We will be having a potluck with members bringing sides, desserts, salads and anything else they wish to bring. The club will supply Sloppy Joes and Brats. Soda and coffee will be available. I will need some members to help setup in the morning. REMINDER: Bring your own plate and silverware. We will probably play bingo after we eat.

MONTHLY TRIPS TO THE LAKE OF THE TORCHES CASINO.

Next trip is Monday 7-19, call Dave 479-479-1401. Because of the flea market parking congestion, during July and August we leave from the south end of the Sentry Foods parking lot at 2:00 P.M. and leave the casino to return home at 6:00 P.M. Van fee is $2. Monday is senior day with a $5.00 discount for lunch (til 3) or dinner. (starts at 4). Questions or to sign up between meetings call Fred R after 7/19 at 715-479-6310

A Note From Our Past President... ..

As Audrey mentioned, when the state inspected our garage last year they found several things that we need to address and correct or we will incur a daily fine that is retroactive!. Primarily we need to remove all of the items that are being stored on top of the store room. We will then need to sift and sort which items we need to keep and which can be disposed of.

When this was mentioned at the July meeting there was a large number of folks that signed up to help with this. We'd like to work on getting everything off the top of the store room on August 10th & 11th (Tuesday & Wednesday) from 9:00 to Noon-ish. If you're not sure where our garage is, someone will meet you by the Community Center at 9:00 and direct you to the garage. We will have lunch for you afterwards. Thank you for your help.

- My husband is kinda jealous of turtles, they can go home whenever they want.
- One good thing about snow, it makes your lawn look as nice as your neighbors!
